

Reed Sales

Reed Sales' mission is to be the recruiter of choice for sales professionals. To achieve this Reed Sales is managed by experienced recruiters who attract and source sales professionals across all sectors for leading employers, both in the UK and internationally.

Each consultant focuses on, and is skilled in a specific industry sector which ensures clients get the very best market knowledge and recruitment solution when looking to hire.

Reed Sales is able to manage the entire recruitment process on your behalf and where relevant, can organise a UK or international campaign using our extensive network of branches. We can also adopt a number of different recruitment methodologies including proactive search, database search, headhunt and online / print advertising.

Our aim is to make the recruitment process as efficient, accurate and successful as possible so why not contact us today to find out why Reed Sales is a name you can trust.

Typical jobs

We handle work for a wide variety of Sales related roles and positions including but not limited to:

- Account Manager
- Business Development
- Direct Sales
- Field Sales
- Sales Director
- Sales Executive
- Sales Manager
- Telesales

Salaries

These roles are generally remunerated on a skills, knowledge and experience basis and can vary widely from sector to sector. Please contact your consultant for advice regarding typical packages and expectations.

Client base

Our clients range from FTSE100 companies to small and medium enterprises.